PROGRAM FOR WEEK OUTLINED

Centennial Will Open Tuesday, Oct. 10 at 10 a. m., With Whistles Blowing, Bells Ringing

HOME COMING ON THURSDAY

Centennial Parade to be Held on Friday and Governor Ralston is Invited to Speak.

WEDDING SET FOR WEDNESDAY

In Addition, There Will be Several Free Attractions and Band Concerts Each Day.

A tentative program was outlined for the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival here the week of October 9 at the meeting last night of the program committee with the chairmen of all committees.

On Tuesday morning, October 10, at ten o'clock, the celebration will be formally opened with the blowing of factory whistles and the ringing of church bells and the court house bell, followed by a short address by Judge Will M. Sparks and music by a chorus at the main platform at the corner of Second and Main streets.

Tuesday afternoon the feature will be a baby and doll parade and prizes, which have not yet been fixed by the executive committee, will be awarded. The prizes will go to the best decorated vehicles. Persons who want information about these parades should call Mrs. Owen Kincaid, who is chairman of the committee.

Wednesday the chief attraction will be a public wedding on the stand at the corner of Main and Second streets. Prizes will be offered by merchants to the lucky couple. The wedding will take place at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The feature of Thursday will be the home coming of former Rush county citizens. The program committee is working on a program for that day which will include some addresses by former Rush county citizens. An effort will be made to get some old Rush county pioneers to come back to Rushville. They will be seated on the platform and introduced to the audience. Two or three Rush county men who have gained prominence will be asked to speak, the committee having started communication with them.

Friday will be Centennial parade day. The big event of the celebration will take place early in the afternoon of that day. In the morning Governor Ralston will probably make an address, although the time is not definitely settled.

A member of the program committee called Governor Ralston at his home last night and invited him to speak here in the morning and make Centennial. The governor replied that he had been assigned to make several political speeches during October and he would have to find if he had an engagement on that date. In any event, the governor said, he would probably be able to speak here i the morning and make a night speech elsewhere as well if he were dated to make any on that day. The member of the committee who talked with him on the telephone wrote him more in detail this morning and expects an early definite reply.

It is especially desired that Governor Ralston be here on Friday because on that day it is expected that all of the school children of the county will be visitors. The teachers and trustees are called to meet in the court house assembly room next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock to see if the teachers will co-operate in presenting floats from

MACHINE GOES INTO DITCH

Summie Green and Oma Brock Thrown Out But Not Hurt.

The automobile driven by Summie Green of near Sexton turned over yesterday in front of the Henry Schrader home north of city. The other occupant of the machine was Miss Oma Brock, but both she and Mr. Green escaped injury. Mr. Green lost control of the machine and it went in the ditch at the side of the road and turned over. The top was badly damaged but otherwise the machine was not hurt. Mr. Green was not driving fast at the time of the accident.

TWO CONTRACTORS IN MAYOR'S COURT

Cases of A. L. Tribble and Francis Hawkins Taken Under Advisement Monday Night.

ONLY ONE HAS WITNESSES

A. L. Tribble and Francis Hawkins, of the contracting firm engaged in the paving of First street, were tried last night in police court. Tribble was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and Hawkins with assault and battery. Mayor Bebout took both cases under advisement.

The charges grew out of an attack last week on Milton Wainscott. Hawkins in his defense maintained that Wainscott tried to induce the men working there to quit, that he stood his taunts just as long as he could, and then struck him. The defense tried to show that his act was justified. Tribble offered no defense and did not introduce any witnesses. Witnesses for the state testified that Tribble struck Wainscott with a pair of tongs while he was down.

The court room was crowded with witnesses and spectators. It was intimated that the reason Tribble did not introduce any witnesses was because the only jurisdiction the mayor has on the charge against him is to bind him over to the circuit court in case he should find him guilty.

NEW COMMERCIAL TEACHER IS HERE

Mrs. G. W. Toomey is Retained to Take Place of E. W. Barrington Who Has Resigned

BEGINS HER DUTIES TODAY

The commercial department of the Rushville high school was without a teacher only one day because Mrs. G. W. Toomey was installed as instructor at the opening of classes this morning. When E. W. Barrington wired his resignation, the school officials were prepared for the emergency and immediately employed Mrs. Toomey. They had previously conferred with Mrs. Toomey because Barrington's action was anticipated, in a measure, due to the fact that the school board had trouble communicating with him last summer.

Mrs. Toomey has senior standing in the Indiana State Normal and is a graduate of the Spencer Commercial school at Louisville, Ky. She has been on the Indianapolis school teachers' supply list and was there when Mr. Scholl employed her yesterday. Mrs. Toomey's husband is an army surgeon and is now on the border. He served in the Spanish-American war.

LEADERS OF 2 DECADES MEET

Twenty Years in Indiana Politics Spanned When W. H. Hays Conferrs With J. K. Gowdy.

G. O. P. STATE CHAIRMAN HERE

Mr. Hays Says he Came For Advice and Inspiration and Got it—Conditions Like 1896.

Two decades in Indiana politics were spanned yesterday afternoon when Republican State Chairman Will H. Hays and Captain John K. Gowdy, former Republican state chairman, held a conference at the home of Captain Gowdy here.

"I came down to see Captain Gowdy for advice and inspiration," said State Chairman Hays, when he was on his way from the Gowdy to the I. & C. traction station to return to Indianapolis.

"And I got what I wanted," added Mr. Hays, with conviction.

Conditions in this campaign are almost identical to those of 1896, when Captain Gowdy was last state chairman. It wah his third period of two years as head of the Republican organization in Indiana, just as this is the third time that State Chairman Hays has been the leader of the Republican state committee. Captain Gowdy served as state chairman in the campaign of 1892, 1894 and 1896.

In more than one respect, the campaigns are similar, and it is for that reason as much as State Chairman Hays' desire to get some advice bred of rich experience that he took a half day off from his strenuous duties at the state headquarters and slipped down here for a pleasant visit with Captain Gowdy.

The tariff was a leading issue in 1896 just as it is today, only there was no world war to complicate the effects of a Democratic revenue bill. Grover Cleveland was president and William McKinley was the Republican candidate for the presidency.

State Chairman Hays faces the same questions that Captain Gowdy did twenty years ago, and how the venerable old veteran of many a political battle met them was what Captain Gowdy confidentially imparted to the present state chairman yesterday.

Captain Gowdy spoke from experience of the type that crowns efforts with victory because in 1896 under his leadership the Republicans swept the state from top to bottom by overwhelming majorities and put Indiana back in the Republican column.

While State Chairman Hays was here, he and Captain Gowdy posed before the motion picture camera to get some more scenes for the motion picture which the Republicans will use in the state campaign

Capain Gowdy is confined to his home pretty much these days, but he still enjoys discussing political affairs and he never loses an opportunity of that kind. On warm days he enjoys a few hours under a canvas awning in his back yard and occasionally on bright days he gets out for an automobile ride.

Political pilgrimages to the Gowdy home are frequent and willl continue to be until after the campaign. James E. Watson never loses a chance to talk politics with Mr. Gowdy. He visits his friend practically every time he comes home even though he is in the midse of a very strenuous campaign.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 19.—Argentina's wheat has been sold almost exclusively to the Allies during the last six monthss. It has been shipped, with practically no exceptions, in British bottoms. The export was 1,379,062, tons, of which the United States took less than 100,000.

TO MAKE VISIT A DISTRICT RALLY

Wayne County Republicans Expect All Counties to be Represented When Hughes Comes.

AT RICHMOND THURSDAY

Immense Torchlight Parade Will Precede Speech at Night—County Vice-Presidents.

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 19.—Thousands of Republicans, representing every county in the sixth Indiana congressional district and several western Ohio counties will attend the big Republican rally to be held in Richmond Thursday, featured by an address to be delivered in the evening by Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for president. The meeting, in fact, promises to be one of the greatest political gatherings ever held in the sixth district.

Each county in the district will be represented by vice presidents, to be selected by the following county chairman; E. Ralph Himelick, Fayette; Elden A. Robb, Hancock; I. M. Bridgeman, Franklin; P. H. Wolford, Henry; A. L. Riggs, Rush; Harry M. Moberly, Shelby; Oliver La Fuse, Union, and L. S. Bowman, Wayne.

Mr. Hughes will arrive in Richmond from Winchester at 8:25 p. m. and will be at once escorted to the coliseum, where he will deliver his address. A preliminary address will be delivered by James Bingham, formerly attorney general of Indiana.

Prior to the arrival of Mr. Hughes there will be an immense torchlight parade and it is believed several thousand men will participate in it.

Richmond, once more one of the Republican strongholds of the sixth district, is prepared to give royal welcome to the hundreds of Republican voters who are to attend the big rally.

FORTY HURT AS A RESULT OF STRIKE

Two Score Girls are Thrown From Jitney in New York and Car Jumps Track

TWO OTHERS IN COLLISION

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 19.—Upwards of forty persons were injured, most of them girls, enroute to work in four accidents today growing out of the car strike.

A jitney auto truck crowded with girls swerved approaching the Williamsburg bridge and pitched its two score passengers into the roadway. Some of them fell beneath other autos or the hoofs of horses and received serious injuries.

A Third avenue car being aperated by strike breakers jumped the track and crashed into a telegraph pole. A motorman and two passengers were injured. Two cars in the Bronx, operated by green motormen, were in collision but no one was injured.

SUPPER AT SPEAKING

Harry E. Scott of Indianapolis will deliver an address to colored voters at the Republican headquarters tonight. He is a gifted orator and a large audience is expected to hear him. Immediately across from headquarters, the women of the Second M. E. church will serve chicken supper this evening, beginning at five o'clock.

WINS HIS THIRD START

Harrie Jones Drives Diamond Q. to Victory at Springfield

Harrie Jones won his third race with his third start with Diamond Q. at the Illinois state fair at Springfield yesterday. The horse won the 2:25 trotting class, although it took five heats to do it. The best time was in 2:08¼. He will go again Thursday in the 2:18 trot. Mr. Jones drove Diamond Q. in the first race of his life at the Indiana state fair and won handily in straight heats. In his second start at Terre Haute last week, he also won with ease.

BREAKS MONOTONY OF DULL COURT SUIT

Sanford Heaton Dislikes Questions Asked by Attorney and Starts Toward Him

STOPPED BY COURT BAILIFF

Judge Sparks heard the claim of Mary A. Heaton against the estate of her mother, the late Sarah J. Stewart in circuit court today. The demand was $100. It is one of several suits involving the Heatons and Stewarts. The monotony of the proceedings this morning were broken by Sanford Heaton, who did not like the questions Donald L. Smith, attorney for the estate, was putting to his son Clyde Heaton.

On cross-examination Clyde Heaton was asked if he was not the same Clyde Heaton who was under indictment in the Fayette circuit court on a charge of stealing chickens and if he were not the same Clyde Heaton who was with Riley Stewart at the time he was killed at the home of Palmer Bilby. The court sustained the objection, but Mr. Heaton was out of his chair and heading towards Mr. Smith when grabbed by the court bailiff. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement.

The defendant, the Lake Erie and Western railroad, has filed a petition to remove the suit brought against it by Guy Shutar to the United States court.

LIKELY TO BE EXONERATED

Driver of Auto Killing Willis Becraft Believed Blameless

Coroner Green was completing his investigation this afternoon on the death of Willis Becraft, who died following injuries received when run over by an automobile driven by Carl Foster. The coroner had some witnesses at his office and expected to finish up the testimony today. The case is being watched with considerable interest. It is hardly pfobable that any blame will be attached to Foster as witnesses declare that Becraft saw the machine and walked directly in front of it after Foster had attempted to avoid hitting him.

NEGRO GOT AWAY.

The police yesterday afternoon were looking for a negro from the Wilk and Company camp near Milroy, but he succeeded in getting away. The police learned that he caught a train to Richmond. The man is alleged to have stolen some clothing from the camp. He went to Milroy and hired a livery rig to bring him here. The rig was returned to Milroy.

Mrs. C. H. Stewart and daughter, Martha, have returned to their home in Connersville after a visit of several days with relatives here.

Serbian Troops Fighting on Own Soil For First Time Since Retreat Last Winter

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 19.—With a steady downpour of rain halting the British operations on the Somme front, where there had been no important fighting since yesterday, the Germans broke out with five violent attacks on the Champaign front last night and attempted a bold stroke on Dead Man's hill, northwest of Verdun, where there has been little fighting for two weeks.

The French war office announced this afternoon that British forces on the Champagne front checked all German attacks with screen fire, causing heavy loss to the Germans.

Paris also reported a most violent battle between the Italians and Bulgarians east of Beles mountains in Macedonia.

Serbian troops are fighting on their native soil for the first time since their retreat through Albania last winter. Allied troops have crossed the Serbian frontier and are advancing against the Bulgarian base at Monastir. Wherever Serbs and Bulgars meet the most savage fighting results because the Serbs are eager to regain lost ground.

HUGHES EXHIBITS LOTS OF GINGER

Republican Nominee Delivers First Speech of Second Tour at Peoria, Ill., Today

PLEASED TO BE BACK ON JOB

(By United Press.)

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 19.—Nominee Hughes chose this city as the one from which he would hurl forth today the first speech of his second presidential campaign tour. He spoke in the hall in which the state Republican conference was meeting and in an hour's speech on the nation's needs and future, enunciated practically everyone of his doctrines of Americanism, a protective tariff, adequate laws for covering labor and fair treatment to legitimate business.

The G. O. P. candidate was plainly pleased to get back to campaigning again. He started with a smile at the crowd which greeted him at the station, waved his hat at those who applauded him on the street and in voice and gesture at the Coliseum exhibited a full measure of "pep." His voice had plenty of ginger.

ARIZONA HONEY IS DEAD

She had been in a critical condition for some time and her death was expected. Besides her husband she is survived by her mother, Mrs. P. J. Wagoner. The funeral services will be conducted Thursday at the Moscow Christian church, but the exact time has not been set. Burial will take place in the cemetery there.

CABINET MAKER TALKS FOR WIFE

J. F. Mutsler Tells of the Relief Helpmate Gained Through Tanlac's Use.

Lafayette, Ind.—J. F. Hutsler, a cabinet maker employed by the Lafayette Lumber and Manufacturing Company, of this city, who lives at 1908 Purdue street, testified recently to the relief his wife gained through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. He said:

"Mrs. Hutsler suffered with indigestion, constipation and kidney trouble. She suffered severe pains across her back, chest and stomach Gas formed in her stomach after eating. She was terribly constipated. Annoyance caused by the derangement of her kidneys kept her awake at night.

"She can eat anything she desires since taking Tanlac. The kidney trouble has been relieved, pains in her back having vanished. The pains in her chest and stomach also are gone. Her sleep is not disturbed now."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general tonic. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store.

RIGSDAG TO TAKE UP ISLAND SALE

New Body Will Convene in November and Then Attention Will be Given the Deal.

ARGUMENT OVER THE PRICE

Copenhagen, Sept. 19.—It is announced that the new Danish Rigsdag is to meet November 1 to discuss the proposed sale of the Danish West Indes to the United States for 25 million dollars.

The Rigsdag is the Danish Congress. The House of Representatives is called the Folkething. It will recruit new members at an election in October. The Senate is called the Landsthing. Election to membership therein will be held about the same time.

Although there has been some argument as to the price to be given for the islands and some hints of pressure by the United States having been brought to bear upon Denmark to force the sale of the islands, it is not expected that there will be any opposition to the sale's completion.

BASEBALL CLASS IS IMPROVING

Prominent Manager Says it is Due to the Demise of the Federal League

HAD DISCOURAGING EFFECT

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—The class of baseball this year as compared to the game put up in 1915 and 1914, has shown a vast improvement, not only in the major leagues, but in the smaller organizations.

A prominent manager of the leagues, discussing this condition, today declared it is due to the demise of the Federal league.

"The disorganizing effect of the Federal league upon ballplayers of all classes was remarkable," he declared. "A good baseball player, unless he was most conscientious, would not give his best efforts a year ago. He figured that any time he got dissatisfied with his place on a certain club, or if the manager of the club threatened him, he could go to the Federal league. This was, to a certain extent, true.

"As a result of this condition we had loafing players who dragged their play until the spectators were thoroughly disgusted. They wouldn't go after a hard chance for they were afraid they would make an error and spoil their averages.

"This year everything has changed. The old competition has returned and baseball again has ascended the pinnacle it slipped from or from where it was pushed by the Feds. The players again are hustling and fans are getting a run for their money.

Apparently this manager, who would not allow the use of his name, knew what he was talking about. Certain it is that games have been played in quicker time this year than in the two preceding ones and it is a certainty that baseball is enjoying prosperity in the two big leagues it hasn't known for two seasons.

The defeat of the Federal league also has removed competition from the two major leagues and this has helped swell attendedance. Also many touted stars in the Federal league have taken their places among the American and National League players and this has helped to revive interest.

Next year will probably see baseball again established at the heighth of the prosperity and popularity it enjoyed in 1912.

A Campaign Joke.

Republicans who are feeding raw material into the Republican publicity machine are planning to have considerable fun with Senator Kern, of Indiana, because of his unfamiliarity with the Democratic platform adopted at Baltimore in 1912, according to advices from Washington.

Near the close of congress Senator Fall, of New Mexico, Republican expert on Mexican affairs, arose in his place and offered this resolution:

"Resolved, That the constitutional rights of American citizens should protect them on our borders, and go with them through otuteh go with them throughout the world, and every American citizen residing or having property in any foreign country is entitled to and must be given the full protection of the United States Government both for himself and his property."

When the reading of this resolution was completed Kern, Democratic leader in the Senate, arose to protest. The resolution should not be acted upon, he said, because it should first be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. He went on to descant upon its lack of virtue, manifestly proceeding on the theory that it was a low-lived effort to criticize the President's Mexican policy.

Some time later Senator Fall and other Republicans permitted Kern to learn that this resolution is the identical language of the Democratic platform adopted at Baltimore, not a word added or substracted. The Republicans treasure Kern's denunciation of his own political child among their collection of choice jokes.

THESE PIPING TIMES OF PEACE

CARRANZA AND WILSON—THE EXPERTS

Up the Hill; Down Again.

National guardsmen from all over the country have been "marched up hill and marched down again." They have had their taste of "watchful waiting" on the Mexican border. It has cost the government $130,000,000 according to Democratic figures to make good Mr. Wilson's incapacity to perceive the necessity for military preparedness during more than two years of his administration, and to the guardsmen who responded patriotically to the call to arms, sacrificing their business, their employment, in many instances the business prospects gained by years of hard and faithful toil, and subjecting their families to privation, all the loss they have sustained is a dead loss. No one will recompense them for it.

Among the measures which President Wilson cited as a fulfillment of platform pledges was the ship purchase bill. He should read the party pledges, which was: to foster the development of a merchant marine "but without imposing additional burdens upon the people." But purhaps President Wilson thinks that in view of all the other large Democratic appropriations the American people will not consider that $50,000,000 appropriation a burden.

Pensions for soldier' widows were increased by congress from $12 to $20 a month, but mother has to continue to get along some way or other without any pension.

"Commerce Reports" issued by the Department of Commerce, says that "there are very few pairs raised in Argentina." Either this is a typographical error, the compiler of these reports is a poor speller, or the Aregntinians are novices in the great American game.

Do you want to see Rushville grow? Do you want to see more money in circulation here? Do you want more of that money yourself? Then stop kicking and get out and push. If you see a defect, help remedy it instead of complaining. Do something yourself instead of leaving everything for others to do. Rushville is and always will be just what we ourselves make it, just as the live wire communities are what their own live wires make them. You can't cultivate corn with a dead horse, and you can't make a live town by simply telling others what they ought to do.

People who boosted prices on the strength of the strike are sailing right along under the happy delusion that the strike is in force. And we, as usual, are the goats.

General Carranza wants the United States to agree to keep its army out of Mexico. That's easy. All the Greasers have to do is to scrub their souls and then behave themselves.

Try it for one day. Give a cheerful word to everyone you see from the time you awake until you go to sleep at night. Then note the change in your own feelings.

It's no trick at all for the modern girl to win a fellow and at the same time make him think he did the winning.

Polly Wink says there would be more happy homes in this country if preachers tied slip knots instead of making them hard and fast.

Needs Protection.

(Norwich Bulletin.)

Strong support is given to the stand which Charels E Hughes is taking in behalf of a protective tariff which will properly serve the industrial interests of this country by J. E. LaDow of the Mansfield, O., Tire and Rubber company, of which concern the board of directors stands politically eight democrats and one republican, in a letter to the New York Herald when he says:

"In Europe the average wage for labor in rubber facories is $1 a day. In America it is $3 a day. In Europe they have all the late rubber machinery and equipment that we have here and then besides get their rubber at less cost, as it is shipped to London as a clearing house, and we have to pay the extra handling, plus the extra freight from there here, plus a commission to middlemen. Therefore we cannot compete on the product."

Yet in spite of this situation the Underwood-Simmons bill cut the tariff on manufactured goods from 35 per cent. to 10 per cent with a few exceptions of 15 per cent and in the opinion of the writers "had it not been for the great war our plants would be closed down today."

This is an indictment of the democratic tariff which goes to the mark. It is a case where business men see their plight regardless of their political leanings. They have gone through the experiment of tariff for reevnue only and they see the mistake as well as appreciate the part which the war has played in preventing business stagnation in this coutry. The relief from such a situation lies in adequate protection and it is that for which the Republican party has always stood and stands today.

It is the republican tariff which gives the industry the protection it needs.

People's Column

To the public:

I wish to right the article that was published a day or two ago. There has been a sensation made of false reports. My wife missed connections and was unable to arrive when she was expected. I became scared, and feared she had met with an accident and went to Indianapolis to try and learn if there had been any wrecks. I did not put any police on her trail. There was no two days' search made and I feel that I have done her an injustice by getting scared fearing she had been hurt or met with foul play. After missing her connections and getting delayed, I acted in too much haste and feel that I have disgraced her now by such false reports that were published.

Crawfordsville, Ind. Sept. 19. —The Postmaster at Advance, a little town near this city, will petition Congress for a new federal building unless a certain Mr. M. H. Brown, calls for his mail or the postmaster bars letters from marriage-seekers, auburn haired lasses from the mails.

Recently a request from one M. H. Brown of Advance for information concerning red-haired girls of nineteen summers wishing to share a good home was printed in several newspapers served by the United Press. Then the letter flood began and it still continues unabated.

Phillips and Mrs. Sarah McMichael; thence east 5 rods; thence south parallel with the east line of the lands of Mrs. Sarah McMichael to the south line of the southwest quarter of said Section, Township and Range, a distance of about 125 rods. These petitioners would further show that they believe the cost and damage and expenses of such drainage will be less than the benefit which will result to the owners of the land likely to be benefited thereby.

PROVES GAME IS STRENUOUS

Maurice McLoughlin Offers Proof That it is the Hardest Game Played in America.

WAS UNABLE TO "COME BACK"

Intimated That he May Try Again Next Year—Donovan Makes Many Changes in Lineup.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—Maurice E. McLoughlin, who twice won the tennis singles championship of America, and is admitted to have been the greatest tennis player this country ever produced, stands as a living proof of the oft made and seldom believed statement that tennis is the most strenuous game played in American.

After his failure to last in the national championship finished September 5 at Forest Hills, McLoughlin declared it was his inabliity to sustain his game that put him out of the running. He said his fierce work two years ago when he performed the feat of defeating Brooks and had simply taken everything he had. Wilding and Australasian players,

"I have tried hard to come back," McLoughlin declared, "but I simply wasn't able to play the game in the same old way. The strength in service and return drives no longer was there. I have tried to develop a different sort of game but it was no use. I guess I'm through."

McLoughlin always was a player of the most strenuous sort. He never admitted a point was lost until he had expended every ounce of energy he could command in an effort to make a net. His entire strength was thrown into every stroke and it was this that finally burned up his muscles. Tennis has been to strenuous for McLoughlin to play and last. In spite of the fact that he was crowned as the king of all tennis players his record is not so good as some others who were considered mediocre. William A. Larned, for instance, seven times won the American championship.

Two years ago it first became evident that Red Mac had come to the point wheer his effectiveness was suffering. After he had beaten the Austraians in the Davis cup matches Mac went into the American championships and after making a great fight went down before the scientific play of R. Norris Williams, II, the present champion. The next year he tried to come back and he made a pretty fair job of it, for he went into the finals and was beaten by William M. Johnston only after the hardest kind of a match. This year Mac fared very badly. He played some good tennis and was given an outside chance to at least reach the semi-finals until he went to the courts against George Myers Church. The long legged easterner gave Mac a tremendous beating. That was the finish.

Even with McLoughlin fallen the tennis fans refused to be deprived of their idol and as he walked sadly away from the court the crowd stood and cheered and many persons wept. The former conquerer found his way to the clubhouse barred by many admirers who sought to shake his hand.

McLoughlin has hinted that he will not return for the matches next year, but it is considered he will make one more effort. He is in business in San Francisco and said he will find it hard to get into shape for the summer with that handicap. He is a lover of tennis, however, and declared he will be in the matches if there is a chance.

Just as the New York baseball writers were proclaiming Charlie Mullen a great second baseman Bill Donovan switched the Seattle wonder to the outfield and sent Lee Magee to second base. Then the writers switched around to Magee and admitted he was something of a keystoner.

But Bill again crossed them by taking Mullen entirely out of the game putting Joe Gedeon at second and sending Magee back to the outfield. But the writers were game. They wondered—with Donovan—why Gedeon ever had been taken out of the game. He was a regular little wonder of a second baser, yessir. And they smilingly accepted Gedeon with open arms and told the public it just had to happen that way.

But Bill wasn't through. About that time Fritz Maisel got over an injury and was sent to third base. Then Frank Baker also recovered and was sent to third base, but the scribes opined Maisel would never consent to be a second baseman, even if Donovan did want it that way, so they relegated Fritz to the outfield and Baker was firmly planted on the third sack.

Then it happened: The first box score after Baker got in the game showed Gedeon again on the bench, with Maisel doing duty at second and Baker at third. Anyway, they guessed Baker right.

Amusements

"The Bird of Paridise," Richard Walton Tully's love story of the Hawaiian Islands, produced by Oliver Morosco, will begin its sixth engagement at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, Monday evening and continue for the balance of the week.

Mr. Tully has written the story of the lives of two men and two women; one a little dark skinned princess, meets a white man, they fall in love and marry. She boasts she can hold her white husband's love through her lips and her arms, but learns, like many others, that love of that nature is not lasting, and when he tires of her, she returns to her people and her native religion and gives herself as a human sacrifice to save her people from destruction. On the other hand, the other woman, an American, meets a drunken beach comber, becomes interested in him, and through her good influence he takes his place among his fellow men again. These four people form the basic theme of Mr. Tully's play, and while the story is tragic, he has introduced many flashes of humor both native and American. Manager Morosco has made five women famous in the part of Luana, the poor little Hawaiian girl, and this season he will present Miss May Buckley, an actress well known to Broadway and seen here in several New York successes. Others in the cast are David Landau, the original beach comber. Ethel Remey, as the American girl, Forrest Stanley, as the cad husband of Luana, Laura Adams as the foster mother, Wilton Taylor, the original Inspector Burke, of "Within the Law," as Capt. Hatch, the Yankee trader, James Nelson, as the high priest, James Applebee, as the missionary, Fanny Yatnis, his wife Mabel Emerson, as an Hawaiian girl John Gribner as the Hawaiian lover, and a quintette of native Hawaiian singers and players, who are one of the chief features of the play.

SHOULD SMASH MASHER-COLLINS

Indianapolis Criminal Court Judge Talks on Best Methods of Extermination.

DEVELOPMENT HAS NO END

Indianapolis, Sept. 19.—With the women organizing in various large cities to combat the masher, Judge James A. Collins, whose experience with that breed dates through years on the city and criminal court benches, came out today with a statement to the United Press as to methods of extermination.

"The masher should be smashed," said Judge Collins, "either by enactment of a drastic ordinance or by such physical violence as each particular case suggest. When it involves the wife or daughter, let the husband or father do the smashing if possible.

"The growth and development of this species of humans, like the making of books, has no end.

One can imagine no more disgusting sight than the gathering of these brainless fops on the street corners, where they spend their time ogling at women as they pass.

"The women of the country can do much towards helping to exterminate this fungus growth on our body politic by instituting a dress reform that will have for its major purpose the elimination of the very low necked dress and the very short skirt. In my judgment it will require both of these agencies to bring about a reform in this particular.

FLIRT IF UNDER 22

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 19.—It's all right to flirt if you're under 22—that's the ruling in Evansville.

Judge Fritsch of the city court was asked what he though of the decision of a New York judge who sentenced a man "never to smile at or flirt with a girl."

"It's all right to flirt if you're under 22," said Judge Fritsch. "I see no harm in that. Let them exchange glances or even words. "Hey you:" he shouted at the retreating reporter, "Don't you say I said it was all right to flirt."

TO ERECT NEW BUILDING

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 19.—Plans are being made here for the trustees of the Normal schools for erection of a new science building just west of the library. The cost of the new building will be $100,000.

A Medicine of Merit.

The great sale of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all over this land is the result of genuine merit. The reason is that this good old fashioned root and herb medicine actually helps those suffering from the ailments peculiar to women. If it did not, would not the women of America have found it out in forty years, so that few of them would buy?

MAXWELL STUDEBAKER

EX-CONVICT IS ONE HERO OF WAR

Lied His Way to the Front and Then Died—Government Won't Give Out His Name.

WAS FORGIVEN BY THE POLICE

Showed Great Daring and Couldn't Understand Why His Officers Didn't Take Chances.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

BY J. W. PEGLER.

London, Sept. 19.—(By Mail)—An ex-convict, veteran inmate of British prisons, today is mourned by his regiment and Scotland Yard alike as one of England's war heroes With a whole list of convictions behind his name he lied his way into the army, won the Victoria Cross and finally made the great atonement during the Big Push. The story was told here today.

As a tribute to the burglar-hero the War Office is shielding his name, but Scotland Yard remembers him of old. His bunkies in France recall him as a hollow cheeked man, slightly stooped, who took ilfe and death as lightly as he did the prison sentences imposed from time to time by glowering judges. He had no relatives; his only friends, who took part in his forays against the law, are still in the game of cracking safes and evading arrest. Therefore his medal will become one of the treasurer of a crack regiment of fighters.

The dead Tommy had just been released from prison when the war broke out.

"Shaving water at nine," he said with a grin as the turnkey slammed the door behind him the night before his release.

"I'm leaving early for the front."

You'll be back again in a month," growled the case hardened warden as he switched off the lights in the tier.

But the convict shed his hand and police record with the prison greys and eased by a lax recruiting officer.

In a few months he was ankle deep in the icy slush of the trenches, sniping through a loophole and running-in with his officers for taking rash chances. He was used to taking chances and couldn't see why they didn't go over the parapet and mix it with the Germans.

At last his opportunity came. The batallion went over with a howl and the burglar-Tommy yelled with glee as he ran firing his rifle from the hip. In the excitement of the fight he became separated from the batallion. A yard away a German machine gun crew in a pit was pouring death into the charging ranks. Tommy ran to the brink of the pit and killed the crew.

When the lines were reformed he was first disciplined for disobeying orders—he shouldn't have gone astray—and then commended for his daring. Tommy merely smiled. Shortly later he received the V. C. and a furlough. The London police shook hands with him and bought him cagarettes.

Tommy went back to France and went over the parapets again in the Big Push. A big shell killed him.

"He was a real enthusiast," said a detective who used to round up the dead hero in the old days. "He never went after a little job when we had dealings with him and he played the game to a finish in war."

GASOLINE IS SURE SCARCE IN ENGLAND

Supply is so Low and Price so High That Private Motoring is Doomed Until After War.

GOVERNMENT TAKES HAND

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 19.—If American motorists feel troubled over the cost of gas for their buzz carts, let them listen to the Britishers troubles and rejoice at their own good fortune.

The British private motor car owner is unable to get the gas he wants at any price. When German submarines began torpedoing the oil tank ships from the United States, the American oil men quit shipping it. Consequently gasoline is so scarce in England that it is given out by card to car owners in very limited quantities.

Not only is the private motor car owner compelled to present his oil card whenever he wants to run his machine a few miles, but the little gas he gets is begrudged him. Many a motor car is in its garage until after the war on this account.

The government has allowed 60 percent of the amount of gas demanded by commercial car owners, 50 per cent of that asked for taxis, 25 per cent of the private motor owners' demand and 2 gallons a month for motorcycles.

All evidences point to the doom of private motoring until after the war. And the private motor car owner blames the submarines and the American oil shipper.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

CLASSY BUNCH AT MICHIGAN

Candidates For Wolverine Eleven Look to be Best in Several Years Old Men Back.

LOOKING FOR QUARTER BACK

With the Exception of One Game All Contests Will be Played on the Home Lot.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 19.—From the classiest looking bunch of candidates assembled here since the days of Craig, Pontius and other heroes of the last Wolverine championship eleven, Coach Fielding H. Yost today is beginning to pick a team to uphold Michigan's honor on the gridiron.

The few veterans who return stars in their respective positions, have been augmented by as fine a class of youngsters as ever responded to the call for early training.

To the usually important question of how may "M" men are available for the team, little significance attaches this year. Last year's eleven was not a howling success and consequently, when Yost lost eight of his fifteen veterans the team's enthusiasts viewed the fact with scarcely a murmur of complaint.

The Yost offense of course will center around Captain Maulbetsch all American half back. Working with him in the backfield will be Pat Smith, fullback, who has developed ground gaining ability second only to "Mauley" himself.

A quarter and one half back must be developed from the new material Ziegler is trying for the quarterback job, and Raymond and Sharpe, 1915 subs, for the position as Maulbetsch's running mate.

The line will present even more of a problem than the back field. The center position will go to Niemann a veteran, but selections for the remaining places are in doubt.

Weske, Rehor and Boyd are eligible for line jobs where they subbed last year. Whalen and Dunne apparently have first call for the end places.

Michigan's perfectly balanced schedule this year opens on October 4, when Marietta will oppose the Wolverine men. The other games are:

Oct. 7, Case school; 11, Carroll college; 14, Mt. Union college; 21 Michigan Aggies; 28, Syracuse university; November 4, Washington university; 11, Cornell; 18, Pennsylvania.

With the exception of the Cornell game, which will be played at Ithaca, all games are to be played on the home lot.

FIRST BASEMEN HEAVY HITTERS

Are Constantly Gaining In Importance As Parts Of Their Team's Attack

PROMISING YOUNGSTERS

George Sisler of Browns Has Already Made Name And McGraw Has Uncovered New One.

By Hamilton
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—That big league first basemen are constantly gaining in importance as parts of their team's attack is becoming evident through the crop of youngsters now banging the ball on the nose for no fewer than five clubs. The sixth probably will be added to this total before the close of the season, and undoubtedly when the next season begins. The most prominent of these youths is George Sisler, the scintillating first hassock guardian with the St. Louis Browns. He is pointed out everywhere as one of the greatest players in the game, he proves it in nearly every game the Browns play. His fielding is topnotch and he hits right close to 300 steady. Sisler has been a big league 2 years Walter Pipp of the Yankees is another nemcomer who has made a bid for fame among first basemen. He leads the American league in home run clouts and has a heavy batting average. Last year, his first, he lead the league's first basemen in fielding. John McGraw appears to have picked up a world beater in Walter Holke, who was puchased from Rochester International League club. McGraw was so sure of this youth's ability that he released Fred Merkle without hesitating. Holke has lived up to expectations in every respect. Jack Ness, who holds the world's record for hitting consecutive games is doing excellent work for the White Sox. This is his first year to stay in the big show. Judge Griffith's fielding sensation, is spending his first year in the majors and has done creditable work. Louis Guisto will be added to crop of brilliant newcomers next spring when he gets a try out with the Indians. His work has been so good in the Pacific Coast league that no one doubts his ability to beat Chick Gandil out of a job. Besides these youngsters who have performed well above the average, both leagues are able to boast of remarkable first basemen, among them being some of the greatest stars of the game. Hal Chance and Jake Daubert are a couple of the most prominent, both in the National league. Fred Luderus of the Phillies and Ed Konetchy of the Braves are two of the most feared batsmen in the older circuit and are excellent fielders. Stuffy McInnis of the Atheletics in another dangerous sticker and in spite of his small stature is considered one of the game's greatest fielders. Hoblitzel and Gainer are two important parts of the Red Sox machine.

George Kelley, utility man for the Giants, may blossom into a George Sisler if rumors constantly heard around the Polo grounds are borne out. He has a remarkable throwing arm and John McGraw is said to be trying to make a pitcher of the youngster. Kelley recently stood about twenty feet to the right of home plate at the Polo grounds and threw a ball into the topmost tier of seats in the left field bleachers. Which is some heave. Other players tried it and none of them even hit the bleachers, although they moved up to the foul line.

R. Norris Williams II. to Get Proper Credit in Book.

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 19.—R. Norris Williams, II, the new national tennis champion, probably will be given No. 1 ranking in the list of players this winter by the national association. It will be his first time to achieve the distinction, in spite of the fact that he was once before the national champion.

Two years ago, when Williams defeated McLoughlin for the title the Philadelphian was ranked second because McLoughlin had just finished beating Brookes and Wilding, the two famous Australasians, thus bringing the Davis cup back to the United States. With that in view the committee decided McLoughlin should be ranked first.

CHALMERS MOTOR CO. Detroit, Mich., U.S.A.
Quality First

A $56,000,000 "RUN" ON A CHALMERS CAR

"Run"—is the word. It's like a run on a bank. Only it's a run on a car—a Chalmers car. It seems endless. The people want more.

And so more must be built for them—20,000 more.

You remember a while ago that six hundred men took one look at this new car and bought $22,000,000 worth in forty very brief minutes. They were the Chalmers Dealers.

Now they insist that more of the same kind be built—more of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So the Chalmers executives have put through a factory work order for 20,000 more of them.

They built and delivered, in six months, 18,000. That was all they intended to build for an entire year. That completed their part of the $22,000,000 affair.

We got them to build another 10,000. We thought that would be enough to last through the fall. But no, the 10,000 were quickly taken up during the summer months.

So they are going to build 20,000 more. That means, all told, 48,000 cars—or $56,000,000 worth of these remarkable 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So you see why I use the word "run." The people who know good cars—like Emerson's wise saying about the man who makes a better mouse trap, etc., will find a beaten path to his door, even though he live in the woods—they create this ever-increasing desire to own a Chalmers.

They have sought quality—not price. We seldom have people ask us the price of this car. When we tell them $1090 Detroit, they are very much taken back. We get little of the "price" trade. Most of those who come to us have passed that era in car buying.

They want quality. And they know pretty well where to look for it. They look for it in the sound of the engine, in the action of the clutch, in the action of the steering apparatus, in the sound of the differential.

They examine the radiator, try the brakes, observe the kind of glass in the windshield, note the kind of material in the top, and then poke around into the corners of the body.

That much done, they get into the car and try her out. For they are smart enough to know that the biggest result of quality is performance.

That's what usually brings us the sale. For performance is the car's middle name. She's got amazing acceleration—so lively and full of spunk.

And then she climbs hills so quickly and hugs the road so well at a rapid clip.

And, best of all, she handles so easily. She's as obedient as any creature man ever made.

Once you try her you, too, will understand the "run" on her. It's a thing difficult to explain, but three editions of a car in a year's time is something to ponder over.

We have it direct by telegraph that Chalmers will continue to make these 3400 r. p. m.'s next season. There's no time limit set. As soon as these last 20,000 are built and out of the way there will probably be more.

So you're dead safe in getting a model of a car that has in no way reached its peak of popularity.

POSTMASTERS ARE AFTER MORE MONEY

Delegates to National Convention Are Pledged to Make Effort to Get Raise.

STAY AT HOMES ANXIOUS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19.—Nine hundred and fifty-nine postmasters in Indiana in cities of the third and fourth class gave their blessings today to Indiana delegates who started for Dayton, Ohio, to attend the annual convention of the National League of Postmasters, which opens there tomorrow. The reason for the blessings was that the delegates are pledged to try for increases in salary for postmasters of these two classes.

In past conventions leaders of the league have succeeded in restraining the members, who compose one-sixth of the total employes of the government postal service, in their desire for more money, but the delegates, who represent 300,000 postmasters, are now said to be determined to get more "wherewithall" wherewith to face the climbing cost of living.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE VALUABLE

Investigation Has Shown That Girls Profit More by This Study Than Any Other.

HOME MAKING A VOCATION

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19.—Investigation has led to the discovery by educational authorities that a course in home economics in public schools is of more value to girl pupils than any other possible course. Domestic science, "home-making" and other subjects pertaining to the home should be included, according to a statement issued from the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles A. Greathouse. He advocated the course of home economics in the schools over the state, because such education converts drudgery into science, creates a wholesome respect for work and furnishes no pitfalls, no hours of artificiality, no grinding days of monotony.

Indiana had made universal such instruction in her schools and is one of the nine states to recognize home-making as a vocation, and as a result, home economic clubs have been organized all over the state, says the statement.

PROGRAM FOR WEEK OUTLINED

Centennial Will Open Tuesday, Oct. 10 at 10 a. m., With Whistles Blowing, Bells Ringing

HOME COMING ON THURSDAY

Centennial Parade to be Held on Friday and Governor Ralston is Invited to Speak.

WEDDING SET FOR WEDNESDAY

In Addition, There Will be Several Free Attractions and Band Concerts Each Day.

A tentative program was outlined for the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival here the week of October 9 at the meeting last night of the program committee with the chairmen of all committees.

On Tuesday morning, October 10, at ten o'clock, the celebration will be formally opened with the blowing of factory whistles and the ringing of church bells and the court house bell, followed by a short address by Judge Will M. Sparks and music by a chorus at the main platform at the corner of Second and Main streets.

Tuesday afternoon the feature will be a baby and doll parade and prizes, which have not yet been fixed by the executive committee, will be awarded. The prizes will go to the best decorated vehicles. Persons who want information about these parades should call Mrs. Owen Kincaid, who is chairman of the committee.

Wednesday the chief attraction will be a public wedding on the stand at the corner of Main and Second streets. Prizes will be offered by merchants to the lucky couple. The wedding will take place at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The feature of Thursday will be the home coming of former Rush county citizens. The program committee is working on a program for that day which will include some addresses by former Rush county citizens. An effort will be made to get some old Rush county pioneers to come back to Rushville. They will be seated on the platform and introduced to the audience. Two or three Rush county men who have gained prominence will be asked to speak, the committee having started communication with them.

Friday will be Centennial parade day. The big event of the celebration will take place early in the afternoon of that day. In the morning Governor Ralston will probably make an address, although the time is not definitely settled.

A member of the program committee called Governor Ralston at his home last night and invited him to speak here in the morning and make Centennial. The governor replied that he had been assigned to make several political speeches during October and he would have to find if he had an engagement on that date. In any event, the governor said, he would probably be able to speak here i the morning and make a night speech elsewhere as well if he were dated to make any on that day. The member of the committee who talked with him on the telephone wrote him more in detail this morning and expects an early definite reply.

It is especially desired that Governor Ralston be here on Friday because on that day it is expected that all of the school children of the county will be visitors. The teachers and trustees are called to meet in the court house assembly room next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock to see if the teachers will co-operate in presenting floats from

The automobile driven by Summie Green of near Sexton turned over yesterday in front of the Henry Schrader home north of city. The other occupant of the machine was Miss Oma Brock, but both she and Mr. Green escaped injury. Mr. Green lost control of the machine and it went in the ditch at the side of the road and turned over. The top was badly damaged but otherwise the machine was not hurt. Mr. Green was not driving fast at the time of the accident.

TWO CONTRACTORS IN MAYOR'S COURT

Cases of A. L. Tribble and Francis Hawkins Taken Under Advisement Monday Night.

ONLY ONE HAS WITNESSES

A. L. Tribble and Francis Hawkins, of the contracting firm engaged in the paving of First street, were tried last night in police court. Tribble was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and Hawkins with assault and battery. Mayor Benout took both cases under advisement.

The charges grow out of an attack last week on Milton Wainscott. Hawkins in his defense maintained that Wainscott tried to induce the men working there to quit, that he stood his taunts just as long as he could, and then struck him. The defense tried to show that his act was justified. Tribble offered no defense and did not introduce any witnesses. Witnesses for the state testified that Tribble struck Wainscott with a pair of tongs while he was down.

The court room was crowded with witnesses and spectators. It was intimated that the reason Tribble did not introduce any witnesses was because the only jurisdiction the mayor has on the charge against him is to bind him over to the circuit court in case he should find him guilty.

NEW COMMERCIAL TEACHER IS HERE

Mrs. G. W. Toomey is Retained to Take Place of E. W. Barrington Who Has Resigned

BEGINS HER DUTIES TODAY

The commercial department of the Rushville high school was without a teacher only one day because Mrs. G. W. Toomey was installed as instructor at the opening of classes this morning. When E. W. Barrington wired his resignation, the school officials were prepared for the emergency and immediately employed Mrs. Toomey. They had previously conferred with Mrs. Toomey because Barrington's action was anticipated, in a measure, due to the fact that the school board had trouble communicating with him last summer.

Mrs. Toomey has senior standing in the Indiana State Normal and is a graduate of the Spencer Commercial school at Louisville, Ky. She has been on the Indianapolis school teachers' supply list and was there when Mr. Scholl employed her yesterday. Mrs. Toomey's husband is an army surgeon and is now on the border. He served in the Spanish-American war.

LEADERS OF 2 DECADES MEET

Twenty Years in Indiana Politics Spanned When W. H. Hays Conferrs With J. K. Gowdy.

G. O. P. STATE CHAIRMAN HERE

Mr. Hays Says he Came For Advice and Inspiration and Got it—Conditions Like 1896.

Two decades in Indiana politics were spanned yesterday afternoon when Republican State Chairman Will H. Hays and Captain John K. Gowdy, former Republican state chairman, held a conference at the home of Captain Gowdy here.

"I came down to see Captain Gowdy for advice and inspiration," said State Chairman Hays, when he was on his way from the Gowdy to the I. & C. traction station to return to Indianapolis.

"And I got what I wanted," added Mr. Hays, with conviction.

Conditions in this campaign are almost identical to those of 1896, when Captain Gowdy was last state chairman. It wah his third period of two years as head of the Republican organization in Indiana, just as this is the third time that State Chairman Hays has been the leader of the Republican state committee. Captain Gowdy served as state chairman in the campaign of 1892, 1894 and 1896.

In more than one respect, the campaigns are similar, and it is for that reason as much as State Chairman Hays' desire to get some advice bred of rich experience that he took a half day off from his strenuous duties at the state headquarters and slipped down here for a pleasant visit with Captain Gowdy.

The tariff was a leading issue in 1896 just as it is today, only there was no world war to complicate the effects of a Democratic revenue bill. Grover Cleveland was president and William McKinley was the Republican candidate for the presidency.

State Chairman Hays faces the same questions that Captain Gowdy did twenty years ago, and how the venerable old veteran of many a political battle met them was what Captain Gowdy confidentially imparted to the present state chairman yesterday.

Captain Gowdy spoke from experience of the type that crowns efforts with victory because in 1896 under his leadership the Republicans swept the state from top to bottom by overwhelming majorities and put Indiana back in the Republican column.

While State Chairman Hays was here, he and Captain Gowdy posed before the motion picture camera to get some made scenes for the motion picture which the Republicans will use in the state campaign

Capain Gowdy is confined to his home pretty much these days, but he still enjoys discussing political affairs and he never loses an opportunity of that kind. On warm days he enjoys a few hours under a canvas awning in his back yard and occasionally on bright days he gets out for an automobile ride.

Political pilgrimages to the Gowdy home are frequent and willl continue to be until after the campaign. James E. Watson never loses a chance to talk politics with Mr. Gowdy. He visits his friend practically every time he comes home even though he is in the midse of a very strenuous campaign.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 19.—Argentina's wheat has been sold almost exclusively to the Allies during the last six monthss. It has been shipped, with practically no exceptions, in British bottoms. The export was 1,379,962, tons, of which the United States took less than 100,000.

TO MAKE VISIT A DISTRICT RALLY

Wayne County Republicans Expect All Counties to be Represented When Hughes Comes.

AT RICHMOND THURSDAY

Immense Torchlight Parade Will Precede Speech at Night—County Vice-Presidents.

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 19.—Thousands of Republicans, representing every county in the sixth Indiana congressional district and several western Ohio counties will attend the big Republican rally to be held in Richmond Thursday, featured by an address to be delivered in the evening by Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for president. The meeting, in fact, promises to be one of the greatest political gatherings ever held in the sixth district.

Each county in the district will be represented by vice presidents, to be selected by the following county chairman; E. Ralph Himelick, Fayette; Elden A. Robb, Hancock; I. M. Bridgeman, Franklin; P. H. Wolford, Henry; A. L. Riggs, Rush; Harry M. Moberly, Shelby; Oliver La Fuse, Union, and L. S. Bowman, Wayne.

Mr. Hughes will arrive in Richmond from Winchester at 8:25 p. m. and will be at once escorted to the coliseum, where he will deliver his address. A preliminary address will be delivered by James Bingham, formerly attorney general of Indiana.

Prior to the arrival of Mr. Hughes there will be an immense torchlight parade and it is believed several thousand men will participate in it.

Richmond, once more one of the Republican strongholds of the sixth district, is prepared to give royal welcome to the hundreds of Republican voters who are to attend the big rally.

FORTY HURT AS A RESULT OF STRIKE

Two Score Girls are Thrown From Jitney in New York and Car Jumps Track

TWO OTHERS IN COLLISION

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 19.—Upwards of forty persons were injured, most of them girls, enroute to work in four accidents today growing out of the car strike.

A jitney auto truck crowded with girls swerved approaching the Williamsburg bridge and pitched its two score passengers into the roadway. Some of them fell beneath other autos or the hoofs of horses and received serious injuries.

A Third avenue car being operated by strike breakers jumped the track and crashed into a telegraph pole. A motorman and two passengers were injured. Two cars in the Bronx, operated by green motormen, were in collision but no one was injured.

SUPPER AT SPEAKING

Harry E. Scott of Indianapolis will deliver an address to colored voters at the Republican headquarters tonight. He is a gifted orator and a large audience is expected to hear him. Immediately across from headquarters, the women of the Second M. E. church will serve chicken supper this evening, beginning at five o'clock.

WINS HIS THIRD START

Harrie Jones Drives Diamond Q. to Victory at Springfield

Harrie Jones won his third race with his third start with Diamond Q. at the Illinois state fair at Springfield yesterday. The horse won the 2:25 trotting class, although it took five heats to do it. The best time was in 2:08¼. He will go again Thursday in the 2:18 trot. Mr. Jones drove Diamond Q. in the first race of his life at the Indiana state fair and won handily in straight heats. In his second start at Terre Haute last week, he also won with ease.

BREAKS MONOTONY OF DULL COURT SUIT

Sanford Heaton Dislikes Questions Asked by Attorney and Starts Toward Him

STOPPED BY COURT BAILIFF

Judge Sparks heard the claim of Mary A. Heaton against the estate of her mother, the late Sarah J. Stewart in circuit court today. The demand was $100. It is one of several suits involving the Heatons and Stewarts. The monotony of the proceedings this morning were broken by Sanford Heaton, who did not like the questions Donald L. Smith, attorney for the estate, was putting to his son Clyde Heaton.

On cross-examination Clyde Heaton was asked if he was not the same Clyde Heaton who was under indictment in the Fayette circuit court on a charge of stealing chickens and if he were not the same Clyde Heaton who was with Riley Stewart at the time he was killed at the home of Palmer Bilby. The court sustained the objection, but Mr. Heaton was out of his chair and heading towards Mr. Smith when grabbed by the court bailiff. Judge Sparks took the case under advisement.

The defendant, the Lake Erie and Western railroad, has filed a petition to remove the suit brought against it by Guy Shutar to the United States court.

LIKELY TO BE EXONERATED

Driver of Auto Killing Willis Becraft Believed Blameless

Coroner Green was completing his investigation this afternoon on the death of Willis Becraft, who died following injuries received when run over by an automobile driven by Carl Foster. The coroner had some witnesses at his office and expected to finish up the testimony today. The case is being watched with considerable interest. It is hardly probable that any blame will be attached to Foster as witnesses declare that Becraft saw the machine and walked directly in front of it after Foster had attempted to avoid hitting him.

NEGRO GOT AWAY.

The police yesterday afternoon were looking for a negro from the Wilk and Company camp near Milroy, but he succeeded in getting away. The police learned that he caught a train to Richmond. The man is alleged to have stolen some clothing from the camp. He went to Milroy and hired a livery rig to bring him here. The rig was returned to Milroy.

Mrs. C. H. Stewart and daughter, Martha, have returned to their home in Connersville after a visit of several days with relatives here.

Serbian Troops Fighting on Own Soil For First Time Since Retreat Last Winter

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 19.—With a steady downpour of rain halting the British operations on the Somme front, where there had been no important fighting since yesterday, the Germans broke out with five violent attacks on the Champaign front last night and attempted a bold stroke on Dead Man's hill, northwest of Verdun, where there has been little fighting for two weeks.

The French war office announced this afternoon that British, forces on the Champagne front checked all German attacks with screen fire, causing heavy loss to the Germans.

Paris also reported a most violent battle between the Italians and Bulgarians east of Beles mountains in Macedonia.

Serbian troops are fighting on their native soil for the first time since their retreat through Albania last winter. Allied troops have crossed the Serbian frontier and are advancing against the Bulgarian base at Monastir. Wherever Serbs and Bulgars meet the most savage fighting results because the Serbs are eager to regain lost ground.

HUGHES EXHIBITS LOTS OF GINGER

Republican Nominee Delivers First Speech of Second Tour at Peoria, Ill., Today

PLEASED TO BE BACK ON JOB

(By United Press.)

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 19.—Nominee Hughes chose this city as the one from which he would [illegible] today the first speech of his second presidential campaign tour. He spoke in the hall in which the state Republican conference was meeting and in an hour's speech on the nation's needs and future, enunciated practically everyone of his doctrines of Americanism, a protective tariff, adequate laws for covering labor and fair treatment to legitimate business.

The G. O. P. candidate was plainly pleased to get back to campaigning again. He started with a smile at the crowd which greeted him at the station, waved his hat at those who applauded him on the street and in voice and gesture at the Coliseum exhibited a full measure of "pep." His voice had plenty of ginger.

CABINET MAKER TALKS FOR WIFE

J. F. Hutsler Tells of the Relief Helpmate Gained Through Tanlac's Use.

Lafayette, Ind.—J. F. Hutsler, a cabinet maker employed by the Lafayette Lumber and Manufacturing Company, of this city, who lives at 1508 Purdue street, testified recently to the relief his wife gained through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. He said:

"Mrs. Hutsler suffered with indigestion, constipation and kidney trouble. She suffered severe pains across her back, chest and stomach and a gas formed in her stomach after eating. She was terribly constipated. Annoyance caused by the defective action of her kidneys kept her awake at night.

"She can eat anything she desires since taking Tanlac. The kidney trouble has been relieved, pains in her back having vanished. The pains in her chest and stomach also are gone. Her sleep is not disturbed now."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like and is a fine blood purifier and general tonic. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store.

RIGSDAG TO TAKE UP ISLAND SALE

New Body Will Convene in November and Then Attention Will be Given the Deal.

ARGUMENT OVER THE PRICE

Copenhagen, Sept. 19.—It is announced that the new Danish Rigsdag is to meet November 1 to discuss the proposed sale of the Danish West Indes to the United States for 25 million dollars.

The Rigsdag is the Danish Congress. The House of Representatives is called the Folkething. It will recruit new members at an election in October. The Senate is called the Landsthing. Election to membership therein will be held about the same time.

Although there has been some argument as to the price to be given for the islands and some hints of pressure by the United States having been brought to bear upon Denmark to force the sale of the islands, it is not expected that there will be any opposition to the sale's completion.

BASEBALL CLASS IS IMPROVING

Prominent Manager Says it is Due to the Demise of the Federal League

HAD DISCOURAGING EFFECT

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—The class of baseball this year as compared to the game put up in 1915 and 1914, has shown a vast improvement, not only in the major leagues, but in the smaller organizations.

A prominent manager of the leagues, discussing this condition, today declared it is due to the demise of the Federal league.

"The disorganizing effect of the Federal league upon ballplayers of all classes was remarkable," he declared. "A good baseball player, unless he was most conscientious, would not give his best efforts a year ago. He figured that any time he got dissatisfied with his place on a certain club, or if the manager of the club threatened him, he could go to the Federal league. This was, to a certain extent, true.

"As a result of this condition we had loafing players who dragged their play until the spectators were thoroughly disgusted. They wouldn't go after a hardchance for they were afraid they would make an error and spoil their averages.

"This year everything has changed. The old competition has returned and baseball again has ascended the pinnacle it slipped from or from where it was pushed by the Feds. The players again are hustling and fans are getting a run for their money.

Apparently this manager, who would not allow the use of his name, knew what he was talking about. Certain it is that games have been played in quicker time this year than in the two preceding ones and it is a certainty that baseball is enjoying prosperity in the two big leagues it hasn't known for two seasons.

The defeat of the Federal league also has removed competition from the two major leagues and this has helped swell attendedance. Also many touted stars in the Federal league have taken their places among the American and National League players and this has helped to revive interest.

Next year will probably see baseball again established at the heighth of the prosperity and popularity it enjoyed in 1912.

A Campaign Joke.

Republicans who are feeding raw material into the Republican publicity machine are planning to have considerable fun with Senator Kern, of Indiana, because of his unfamiliarity with the Democratic platform adopted at Baltimore in 1912, according to advices from Washington.

Near the close of congress Senator Fall, of New Mexico, Republican expert on Mexican affairs, arose in his place and offered this resolution:

"Resolved, That the constitutional rights of American citizens should protect them on our borders, and go with them through otutch go with them throughout the world, and every American citizen residing or having property in any foreign country is entitled to and must be given the full protection of the United States Government both for himself and his property."

When the reading of this resolution was completed Kern, Democratic leader in the Senate, arose to protest. The resolution should not be acted upon, he said, because it should first be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. He went on to de-cant upon its lack of virtue, manifestly proceeding on the theory that it was a low-lived effort to criticize the President's Mexican policy.

Some time later Senator Fall and other Republicans permitted Kern to learn that this resolution is the identical language of the Democratic platform adopted at Baltimore, not a word added or substracted. The Republicans treasure Kern's denunciation of his own political child among their collection of choice jokes.

THESE PIPING TIMES OF PEACE

CARRANZA AND WILSON—THE EXPERTS

Up the Hill; Down Again.

National guardsmen from all over the country have been "marched up hill and marched down again." They have had their taste of "watchful waiting" on the Mexican border. It has cost the government $130,000,000 according to Democratic figures to make good Mr. Wilson's incapacity to perceive the necessity for military preparedness during more than two years of his administration, and to the guardsmen who responded patriotically to the call to arms, sacrificing their business, their employment, in many instances the business prospects gained by years of hard and faithful toil, and subjecting their families to privation, all the loss they have sustained is a dead loss. No one will recompense them for it.

Among the measures which President Wilson cited as a fulfillment of platform pledges was the ship purchase bill. He should read the party pledges, which was: to foster the development of a merchant marine "but without imposing additional burdens upon the people." But purhaps President Wilson thinks that in view of all the other large Democratic appropriations the American people will not consider that $50,000,000 appropriation a burden.

Pensions for soldier widows were increased by congress from $12 to $20 a month, but mother has to continue to get along some way or other without any pension.

"Commerce Reports" issued by the Department of Commerce, says that "there are very few pairs raised in Argentina." Either this is a typographical error, the compiler of these reports is a poor speller, or the Aregntinians are novices in the great American game.

Do you want to see Rushville grow? Do you want to see more money in circulation here? Do you want more of that money yourself? Then stop kicking and get out and push. If you see a defect, help remedy it instead of complaining. Do something yourself instead of leaving everything for others to do. Rushville is and always will be just what we ourselves make it, just as the live wire communities are what their own live wires make them. You can't cultivate corn with a dead horse, and you can't make a live town by simply telling others what they ought to do.

People who boosted prices on the strength of the strike are sailing right along under the happy delusion that the strike is in force. And we, as usual, are the goats.

General Carranza wants the United States to agree to keep its army out of Mexico. That's easy. All the Greasers have to do is to scrub their souls and then behave themselves.

Try it for one day. Give a cheerful word to everyone you see from the time you awake until you go to sleep at night. Then note the change in your own feelings.

It's no trick at all for the modern girl to win a fellow and at the same time make him think he did the winning.

Polly Wink says there would be more happy homes in this country if preachers tied slip knots instead of making them hard and fast.

To the public:

I wish to right the article that was published a day or two ago. There has been a sensation made of false reports. My wife missed connections and was unable to arrive when she was expected. I became scared, and feared she had met with an accident and went to Indianapolis to try and learn if there had been any wrecks. I did not put any police on her trail. There was no two days' search made and I feel that I have done her an injustice by getting scared fearing she had been hurt or met with foul play. After missing her connections and getting delayed, I acted in too much haste and feel that I have disgraced her now by such false reports that were published.

Current Comments

Needs Protection.

(Norwich Bulletin.)

Strong support is given to the stand which Charels E Hughes is taking in behalf of a protective tariff which will properly serve the industrial interests of this country by J. E. LaDow of the Mansfield, O., Tire and Rubber company, of which concern the board of directors stands politically eight democrats and one republican, in a letter to the New York Herald when he says:

"In Europe the average wage for labor in rubber facories is $1 a day. In America it is $3 a day. In Europe they have all the late rubber machinery and equipment that we have here and then besides get their rubber at less cost, as it is shipped to London as a clearing house, and we have to pay the extra handling, plus the extra freight from there here, plus a commission to middlemen. Therefore we cannot compete on the product."

Yet in spite of this situation the Underwood-Simmons bill cut the tariff on manufactured goods from 35 per cent. to 10 per cent with a few exceptions of 15 per cent and in the opinion of the writers "had it not been for the great war our plants would be closed down today."

This is an indictment of the democratic tariff which goes to the mark. It is a case where business men see their plight regardless of their political leanings. They have gone through the experiment of tariff for reevnue only and they see the mistake as well as appreciate the part which the war has played in preventing business stagnation in this contry. The relief from such a situation lies in adequate protection and it is that for which the Republican party has always stood and stands today.

It is the republican tariff which gives the industry the protection it needs.

These petitioners would further represent and show that they believe the public health will be improved and benefited by the proposed drain and that said proposed work will be of public utility.

These petitioners would further represent that they believe the proposed work can be accomplished in the cheapest and best manner by a ditch and drain beginning at a point which is 45 rods east and 66 rods south of the northwest corner of the west half of the northwest quarter of Section 26, Township 14, Range 8; thence in a southerly direction about 94 rods to the south line of said northwest quarter section; thence in a southeasterly direction to a point which is 35 rods and 12½ feet south of the south line of said quarter section and on the dividing lines between the land of Phebe A. Phillips and Mrs. Sarah McMichael; thence east 5 rods; thence south parallel with the east line of the lands of Mrs. Sarah McMichael to the south line of the southwest quarter of said Section, Township and Range, a distance of about 125 rods. Said point of intersection at the south line of said southwest quarter being a point 15 rods west of the southeast corner of said southwest quarter of Section 26, Township 14, Range 8; thence south a distance of about 160 rods across the west half of the northwest quarter of Section 35, Township 14, Range 8, to a point where the Bever Meadow ditch empties into Little Blue River; said drain is all about 420 rods in length.

These petitioners would further show that they believe the cost and damage and expenses of such drainage will be less than the benefit which will result to the owners of the land likely to be benefited thereby.

Wherefore these petitioners pray the Court that said ditch may be established as provided by law.

The organization for the Centennial is believed to be the best ever formed here. Everything is going forward systematically and each committee is doing its share of the work. The executive committee meets each afternoon at two o'clock in the office of A. A general meeting of all committees with the executive committee will be held tonight at eight o'clock at the court house and every committeeman is urged to be present.

Work is going forward on the decorative arches which will be erected at the four main entrances to the business district of the city. The supports for the one at the corner of Second and Perkins street were put up yesterday evening and the arch was to be completed today. It will decorated at once.

PROVES GAME IS STRENUOUS

Maurice McLoughlin Offers Proof That it is the Hardest Game Played in America.

WAS UNABLE TO "COME BACK"

Intimated That he May Try Again Next Year—Donovan Makes Many Changes in Lineup.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—Maurice E. McLoughlin, who twice won the tennis singles championship of America, and is admitted to have been the greatest tennis player this country ever produced, stands as a living proof of the oft made and seldom believed statement that tennis is the most strenuous game played in American.

After his failure to last in the national championship finished September 5 at Forest Hills, McLoughlin declared it was his inabliity to sustain his game that put him out of the running. He said his fierce work two years ago when he performed the feat of defeating Brooks and had simply taken everything he had. Wilding and Australasian players.

"I have tried hard to come back," McLoughlin declared, "but I simply wasn't able to play the game in the same old way. The strength in service and return drives no longer was there. I have tried to develop a different sort of game but it was no use. I guess I'm through."

McLoughlin always was a player of the most strenuous sort. He never admitted a point was lost until he had expended every ounce of energy he could command in an effort to make a net. His entire strength was thrown into every stroke and it was this that finally burned up his muscles. Tennis has been to strenuous for McLoughlin to play and last. In spite of the fact that he was crowned as the king of all tennis players his record is not so good as some others who were considered mediocre. William A. Larned, for instance, seven times won the American championship.

Two years ago it first became evident that Red Mac had come to the point wheer his effectiveness was suffering. After he had beaten the Australians in the Davis cup matches Mac went into the American championships and after making a great fight went down before the scientific play of R. Norris Williams, II, the present champion. The next year he tried to come back and he made a pretty fair job of it, for he went into the finals and was beaten by William M. Johnston only after the hardest kind of a match. This year Mac fared very badly. He played some good tennis and was given an outside chance to at least reach the semi-finals until he went to the courts against George Myers Church. The long legged easterner gave Mac a tremendous beating. That was the finish.

Even with McLoughlin fallen the tennis fans refused to be deprived of their idol and as he walked sadly away from the court the crowd stood and cheered and many persons wept. The former conquerer found his way to the clubhouse barred by many admirers who sought to shake his hand.

McLoughlin has hinted that he will not return for the matches next year, but it is considered he will make one more effort. He is in business in San Francisco and said he will find it hard to get into shape for the summer with that handicap. He is a lover of tennis, however, and declared he will be in the matches if there is a chance.

Just as the New York baseball writers were proclaiming Charlie Mullen a great second baseman Bill Donovan switched the Seattle wonder to the outfield and sent Lee Magee to second base. Then the writers switched around to Magee and admitted he was something of a keystoner.

But Bill again crossed them by taking Mullen entirely out of the game putting Joe Gedeon at second and sending Magee back to the outfield. But the writers were game. They wondered—with Donovan—why Gedeon ever had been taken out of the game. He was a regular little wonder of a second baser, yessir. And they smilingly accepted Gedeon with open arms and told the public it just had to happen that way.

But Bill wasn't through. About that time Fritz Maisel got over an injury and was sent to third base. Then Frank Baker also recovered and was sent to third base, but the scribes opined Maisel would never consent to be a second baseman, even if Donovan did want it that way, so they relegated Fritz to the outfield and Baker was firmly planted on the third sack.

Then it happened: The first box score after Baker got in the game showed Gedeon again on the bench, with Maisel doing duty at second and Baker at third. Anyway, they guessed Baker right.

Amusements

"The Bird of Paridise," Richard Walton Tully's love story of the Hawaiian Islands, produced by Oliver Morosco, will begin its sixth engagement at the Shubert Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, Monday evening and continue for the balance of the week.

Mr. Tully has written the story of the lives of two men and two women; one a little dark skinned princess, meets a white man, they fall in love and marry. She boasts she can hold her white husband's love through her lips and her arms, but learns, like many others, that love of that nature is not lasting, and when he tires of her, she returns to her people and her native religion and gives herself as a human sacrifice to save her people from destruction. On the other hand, the other woman, an American, meets a drunken beach comber, becomes interested in him, and through her good influence he takes his place among his fellow men again. These four people form the basic theme of Mr. Tully's play, and while the story is tragic, he has introduced many flashes of humor both native and American. Manager Morosco has made five women famous in the part of Luana, the poor little Hawaiian girl, and this season he will present Miss May Buckley, an actress well known to Broadway and seen here in several New York successes. Others in the east are David Landau, the original beach comber, Ethel Remey, as the American girl, Forrest Stanley, as the ead husband of Luana, Laura Adams as the foster mother, Wilton Taylor, the original Inspector Burke, of "Within the Law," as Capt. Hatch, the Yankee trader, James Nelson, as the high priest, James Applebee, as the missionary, Fanny Yatnis, his wife Mabel Emerson, as an Hawaiian girl John Gribner as the Hawaiian lover, and a quintette of native Hawaiian singers and players, who are one of the chief features of the play.

SHOULD SMASH MASHER-COLLINS

Indianapolis Criminal Court Judge Talks on Best Methods of Extermination.

DEVELOPMENT HAS NO END

Indianapolis, Sept. 19.—With the women organizing in various large cities to combat the masher, Judge James A. Collins, whose experience with that breed dates through years on the city and criminal court benches, came out today with a statement to the United Press as to methods of extermination.

"The masher should be smashed," said Judge Collins, "either by enactment of a drastic ordinance or by such physical violence as each particular case suggest. When it involves the wife or daughter, let the husband or father do the smashing if possible.

"The growth and development of this species of humans, like the making of books, has no end.

One can imagine no more disgusting sight than the gathering of these brainless fops on the street corners, where they spend their time ogling at women as they pass.

"The women of the country can do much towards helping to exterminate this fungus growth on our body politic by instituting a dress reform that will have for its major purpose the elimination of the very low necked dress and the very short skirt. In my judgment it will require both of these agencies to bring about a reform in this particular.

FLIRT IF UNDER 22

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 19.—It's all right to flirt if you're under 22—that's the ruling in Evansville.

Judge Fritsch of the city court was asked what he though of the decision of a New York judge who sentenced a man "never to smile at or flirt with a girl."

"It's all right to flirt if you're under 22," said Judge Fritsch. "I see no harm in that. Let them exchange glances or even words. "Hey you:" he shouted at the retreating reporter, "Don't you say I said it was all right to flirt."

TO ERECT NEW BUILDING

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 19.—Plans are being made here for the trustees of the Normal schools for erection of a new science building just west of the library. The cost of the new building will be $100,000.

A Medicine of Merit.

The great sale of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all over this land is the result of genuine merit. The reason is that this good old fashioned root and herb medicine actually helps those suffering from the ailments peculiar to women. If it did not, would not the women of America have found it out in forty years, so that few of them would buy?

EX-CONVICT IS ONE HERO OF WAR

Lied His Way to the Front and Then Died—Government Won't Give Out His Name.

WAS FORGIVEN BY THE POLICE

Showed Great Daring and Couldn't Understand Why His Officers Didn't Take Chances.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

BY J. W. PEGLER.

London, Sept. 19.—(By Mail)—An ex-convict, veteran inmate of British prisons, today is mourned by his regiment and Scotland Yard alike as one of England's war heroes With a whole list of convictions behind his name he lied his way into the army, won the Victoria Cross and finally made the great atonement during the Big Push. The story was told here today.

As a tribute to the burglar-hero the War Office is shielding his name, but Scotland Yard remembers him of old. His bunkies in France recall him as a hollow cheeked man, slightly stooped, who took life and death as lightly as he did the prison sentences imposed from time to time by glowering judges. He had no relatives; his only friends, who took part in his forays against the law, are still in the game of cracking safes and evading arrest. Therefore his medal will become one of the treasurer of a crack regiment of fighters.

The dead Tommy had just been released from prison when the war broke out.

"Shaving water at nine," he said with a grin as the turnkey slammed the door behind him the night before his release.

"I'm leaving early for the front."

You'll be back again in a month," growled the ease hardened warden as he switched off the lights in the tier.

But the convict shed his hand and police record with the prison greys and eased by a lax recruiting officer.

In a few months he was ankle deep in the icy slush of the trenches, sniping through a loophole and running-in with his officers for taking rash chances. He was used to taking chances and couldn't see why they didn't go over the parapet and mix it with the Germans.

At last his opportunity came. The batallion went over with a howl and the burglar-Tommy yelled with glee as he ran firing his rifle from the hip. In the excitement of the fight he became separated from the battalion. A yard away a German machine gun crew in a pit was pouring death into the charging ranks. Tommy ran to the brink of the pit and killed the crew.

When the lines were reformed he was first disciplined for disobeying orders—he shouldn't have gone astray—and then commended for his daring. Tommy merely smiled. Shortly later he received the V. C. and a furlough. The London police shook hands with him and bought him cagarettes.

Tommy went back to France and went over the parapets again in the Big Push. A big shell killed him.

"He was a real enthusiast," said a detective who used to round up the dead hero in the old days. "He never went after a little job when we had dealings with him and he played the game to a finish in war."

GASOLINE IS SURE SCARCE IN ENGLAND

Supply is so Low and Price so High That Private Motoring is Doomed Until After War.

GOVERNMENT TAKES HAND

(By United Press.)

London, Sept. 19.—If American motorists feel troubled over the cost of gas for their buzz carts, let them listen to the Britishers troubles and rejoice at their own good fortune.

The British private motor car owner is unable to get the gas he wants at any price. When German submarines began torpedoing the oil tank ships from the United States, the American oil men quit shipping it. Consequently gasoline is so scarce in England that it is given out by card to car owners in very limited quantities.

Not only is the private motor car owner compelled to present his oil card whenever he wants to run his machine a few miles, but the little gas he gets is begrudged him. Many a motor car is in its garage until after the war on this account.

The government has allowed 60 percent of the amount of gas demanded by commercial car owners, 50 per cent of that asked for taxis, 25 per cent of the private motor owners' demand and 2 gallons a month for motorcycles.

All evidences point to the doom of private motoring until after the war. And the private motor car owner blames the submarines and the American oil shipper.

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, sallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

CLASSY BUNCH AT MICHIGAN

Candidates For Wolverine Eleven Look to be Best in Several Years Old Men Back.

LOOKING FOR QUARTER BACK

With the Exception of One Game All Contests Will be Played on the Home Lot.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 19.—From the classiest looking bunch of candidates assembled here since the days of Craig, Pontius and other heroes of the last Wolverine championship eleven, Coach Fielding H. Yost today is beginning to pick a team to uphold Michigan's honor on the gridiron.

The few veterans who return stars in their respective positions, have been augmented by as fine a class of youngsters as ever responded to the call for early training.

To the usually important question of how may "M" men are available for the team, little significance attaches this year. Last year's eleven was not a howling success and consequently, when Yost lost eight of his fifteen veterans the team's enthusiasts viewed the fact with scarcely a murmur of complaint.

The Yost offense of course will center around Captain Maulbetsch all American half back. Working with him in the backfield will be Pat Smith, fullback, who has developed ground gaining ability second only to "Mauley" himself.

A quarter and one half back must be developed from the new material Ziegler is trying for the quarterback job, and Raymond and Sharpe, 1915 subs, for the position as Maulbetsch's running mate.

The line will present even more of a problem than the back field. The center position will go to Niemann a veteran, but selections for the remaining places are in doubt.

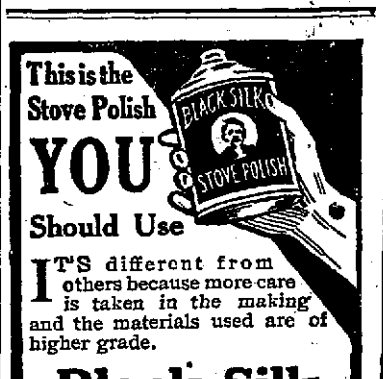

Weske, Rehor and Boyd are eligible for line jobs where they subbed last year. Whalen and Dunne apparently have first call for the end places.

Michigan's perfectly balanced schedule this year opens on October 4, when Marietta will oppose the Wolverine men. The other games are:

Oct. 7, Case school; 11, Carrol college; 14, Mt. Union college; 21 Michigan Aggies; 28, Syracuse university; November 4, Washington university; 11, Cornell; 18, Pennsylvania.

With the exception of the Cornell game, which will be played at Ithaca, all games are to be played on the home lot.

FIRST BASEMEN HEAVY HITTERS

Are Constantly Gaining In Importance As Parts Of Their Team's Attack

PROMISING YOUNGSTERS

George Sisler of Browns Has Already Made Name And McGraw Has Uncovered New One.

By Hamilton
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 19.—That big league first basemen are constantly gaining in importance as parts of their team's attack is becoming evident through the crop of youngsters now banging the ball on the nose for no fewer than five clubs. The sixth probably will be added to this total before the close of the season, and undoubtedly when the next season begins. The most prominent of these youths is George Sisler, the scintillating first bassock guardian with the St. Louis Browns. He is pointed out everywhere as one of the greatest players in the game, he proves it in nearly every game the Browns play. His fielding is topnotch and he hits right close to 300 steady. Sisler has been a big league 2 years Walter Pipp of the Yankees is another nemcomer who has made a bid for fame among first basemen. He leads the American league in home run clouts and has a heavy batting average. Last year, his first, he lead the league's first basemen in fielding. John McGraw appears to have picked up a world beater in Walter Holke, who was puchased from Rochester International League club. McGraw was so sure of this youth's ability that he released Fred Merkle without hesitating. Holke has lived up to expectations in every respect. Jack Ness, who holds the world's record for hitting consecutive games is doing excellent work for the White Sox. This is his first year to stay in the big show. Judge Griffith's fielding sensation, is spending his first year in the majors and has done creditable work. Louis Guisto will be added to crop of brilliant newcomers next spring when he gets a try out with the Indians. His work has been so good in the Pacific Coast league that no one doubts his ability to beat Chick Gandil out of a job. Besides these youngsters who have performed well above the average, both leagues are able to boast of remarkable first basemen, among them being some of the greatest stars of the game. Hal Chance and Jake Daubert are a couple of the most prominent, both in the National league. Fred Luderus of the Phillies and Ed Konetchy of the Braves are two of the most feared batsmen in the older circuit and are excellent fielders. Stuffy McInnis of the Atheletics in another dangerous sticker and in spite of his small stature is considered one of the game's greatest fielders. Hoblitzel and Gainer are two important parts of the Red Sox machine.

George Kelley, utility man for the Giants, may blossom into a George Sisler if rumors constantly heard around the Polo grounds are borne out. He has a remarkable throwing arm and John McGraw is said to be trying to make a pitcher of the youngster. Kelley recently stood about twenty feet to the right of home plate at the Polo grounds and threw a ball into the topmost tier of seats in the left field bleachers. Which is some heave. Other players tried it and none of them even hit the bleachers, although they moved up to the foul line.

WILL BE RATED THIS TIME

R. Norris Williams II. to Get Proper Credit in Book.

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 19.—R. Norris Williams, II, the new national tennis champion, probably will be given No. 1 ranking in the list of players this winter by the national association. It will be his first time to achieve the distinction, in spite of the fact that he was once before the national champion.

Two years ago, when Williams defeated McLoughlin for the title the Philadelphian was ranked second because McLoughlin had just finished beating Brookes and Wilding, the two famous Australasians, thus bringing the Davis cup back to the United States. With that in view the committee decided McLoughlin should be ranked first.

CHALMERS MOTOR CO. Detroit, Mich. U.S.A.
Quality First

A $56,000,000 "RUN" ON A CHALMERS CAR

"Run"—is the word. It's like a run on a bank. Only it's a run on a car—a Chalmers car. It seems endless. The people want more.

And so more must be built for them—20,000 more.

You remember a while ago that six hundred men took one look at this new car and bought $22,000,000 worth in forty very brief minutes. They were the Chalmers Dealers.

Now they insist that more of the same kind be built—more of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So the Chalmers executives have put through a factory work order for 20,000 more of them.

They built and delivered, in six months, 18,000. That was all they intended to build for an entire year. That completed their part of the $22,000,000 affair.

We got them to build another 10,000. We thought that would be enough to last through the fall. But no, the 10,000 were quickly taken up during the summer months.

So they are going to build 20,000 more. That means, all told, 48,000 cars—or $56,000,000 worth of these remarkable 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers.

So you see why I use the word "run." The people who know good cars—like Emerson's wise saying about the man who makes a better mouse trap, etc., will find a beaten path to his door, even though he live in the woods—they create this ever-increasing desire to own a Chalmers.

They have sought quality—not price. We seldom have people ask us the price of this car. When we tell them $1090 Detroit, they are very much taken back. We get little of the "price" trade. Most of those who come to us have passed that era in car buying.

They want quality. And they know pretty well where to look for it. They look for it in the sound of the engine, in the action of the clutch, in the action of the steering apparatus, in the sound of the differential.

They examine the radiator, try the brakes, observe the kind of glass in the windshield, note the kind of material in the top, and then poke around into the corners of the body.

That much done, they get into the car and try her out. For they are smart enough to know that the biggest result of quality is performance.

That's what usually brings us the sale. For performance is the car's middle name. She's got amazing acceleration—so lively and full of spunk.

And then she climbs hills so quickly and hugs the road so well at a rapid clip.

And, best of all, she handles so easily. She's as obedient as any creature man ever made.

Once you try her you, too, will understand the "run" on her. It's a thing difficult to explain, but three editions of a car in a year's time is something to ponder over.

We have it direct by telegraph that Chalmers will continue to make these 3400 r. p. m.'s next season. There's no time limit set. As soon as these last 20,000 are built and out of the way there will probably be more.

So you're dead safe in getting a model of a car that has in no way reached its peak of popularity.

POSTMASTERS ARE AFTER MORE MONEY

Delegates to National Convention Are Pledged to Make Effort to Get Raise.

STAY AT HOMES ANXIOUS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19.—Nine hundred and fifty-nine postmasters in Indiana in cities of the third and fourth class gave their blessings today to Indiana delegates who started for Dayton, Ohio, to attend the annual convention of the National League of Postmasters, which opens there tomorrow. The reason for the blessings was that the delegates are pledged to try for increases in salary for postmasters of these two classes.

In past conventions leaders of the league have succeeded in restraining the members, who compose one-sixth of the total employes of the government postal service, in their desire for more money, but the delegates, who represent 300,000 postmasters, are now said to be determined to get more "wherewithall" wherewith to face the climbing cost of living.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE VALUABLE

Investigation Has Shown That Girls Profit More by This Study Than Any Other.

HOME MAKING A VOCATION

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 19.—Investigation has led to the discovery by educational authorities that a course in home economics in public schools is of more value to girl pupils than any other possible course. Domestic science, "home-making" and other subjects pertaining to the home should be included, according to a statement issued from the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Charles A. Greathouse. He advocated the course of home economics in the schools over the state, because such education converts drudgery into science, creates a wholesome respect for work and furnishes no pitfalls, no hours of artificiality, no grinding days of monotony.

Indiana had made universal such instruction in her schools and is one of the nine states to recognize home-making as a vocation, and as a result, home economic clubs have been organized all over the state, says the statement.

SCARE FROM DIPHTHERIA

Morristown Churches, Schools and Theater Are Closed.

The Morristown school was closed yesterday on account of a diphtheria epidemic there. One death from the disease and two other cases led the health authorities to take this step. The motion picture theatre was closed Saturday night and all of the churches were closed Sunday. The scare was really caused by the death of James Clark, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Clark, who died Saturday night. He was sick only three days.
